

COSEE Ocean Learning Communities: A Farewell Event
November 30, 2012, Seattle Aquarium
Lightning Talk Speakers

Moderator: Fritz Stahr

UW School of Oceanography, COSEE OLC

Jim Wharton

Seattle Aquarium, COSEE OLC; j.wharton@seattleaquarium.org

Someone Has to Preach to the Choir Talk, <http://youtu.be/DaXFM2BSzbM>

Jason Hodin

Hopkins Marine Station, Stanford University, University of Washington Biology; seastar@stanford.edu

Inquiry-Based Classroom Climate Resources, http://youtu.be/v20pe_NjHyU

Jeff Adams

Washington Sea Grant; jaws@uw.edu

Beach Monitoring, <http://youtu.be/lpPXgyMf50U>

Mark Warner

University of Washington School of Oceanography; warner@uw.edu

Refrigerators and Ocean Circulation?, <http://youtu.be/kyAyxIEVjy0>

Alberto Rodriguez

Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition; alberto@duwamishcleanup.org

Seattle's Only River (It's Fate Is In Your Hands), <http://youtu.be/AkFIAQiLFro>

Veronique Robigou

Ocean et Terra Studio; veron@comcast.net

Using The Other Side of Your Brain, <http://youtu.be/6xR7E4TlIbs>

Chrys Bertolloto

WSU Snohomish County Extension; Chrys@wsu.edu

Community of Practice, <http://youtu.be/gbVOufX5Dc8>

Peter Kuriyama

Graduate Student

University of Washington School of Aquatic & Fishery Sciences; ptkrym@uw.edu

Catch Shares, <http://youtu.be/wTHh3-WXtDs>

Justin Schulze

SoundCitizen, University of Washington Tacoma, Center for Urban Waters; jschulze@uw.edu;

Does The Poo Come From Your Or Things That Go Moo?, <http://youtu.be/hVaMz1tHFew>

Carrie Tzou

University of Washington Bothell, Department of Education, COSEE OLC; CTzou@uwb.edu;

My Place in Puget Sound, <http://youtu.be/CPVvSMWJk8>